Strada

crafted PR

A close-up photograph of a person's hands using black-handled scissors to cut a piece of dark material. In the foreground, a dark brown leather smartphone case with a textured surface and a small cutout is resting on a light-colored surface. The background is blurred, showing a person wearing a grey t-shirt. The word "PROTECTION" is overlaid in large, bold, yellow capital letters across the middle of the image.

PROTECTION

STEP UP YOUR GAME

Sophisticated protection and timeless style come together with Strada Series. Crafted from genuine leather and combining a folio, a cardholder and a protective shell, Strada Series is the only leather smartphone case with trusted OtterBox protection built right in.

Premium Leather. Proven Protection.

GENUINE LEATHER

Taking cues from coveted, handcrafted leather goods, Strada Series integrates modern innovation with classic materials to create this beautiful, yet protective case.

INNOVATIVE DESIGN

Featuring a book-style cover, Strada Series closes securely around your device, and opens to reveal a convenient slot for a bank or ID card. The stylish exterior is soft to the touch and exudes the subtle aroma of premium leather. The polished metal latch keeps the folio securely shut and the soft interior cradles your device to help protect it from drop and shock impacts. Strada Series is a testament to style and a statement in protection.

CRAFTED PROTECTION

Protection technology is what we're known for. Now we combine that expertise with tried and true genuine leather to protect like never before. Sleek lines. Soft-touch genuine leather. Engineered confidence. Strada Series performs when it matters most.
